Prayer Points

Stand Firm in the Truth of the Gospel

Pray that God would give you courage to defend the truth of salvation by grace through faith, even when it’s unpopular.

Reject Fear and Live by Faith

Ask God to deliver you from the fear of people’s opinions and to help you walk boldly in the freedom of the gospel.

Rest in Christ’s Finished Work

Pray that you would stop striving for approval and instead rest in the righteousness Christ freely gives.

Let Christ Live Through You

Ask God to fill you daily with His Spirit so that others see Christ in your words, actions, and attitudes.

Be a Defender of Gospel Integrity

Pray that your life and witness would always align with the message of grace and truth — Jesus plus nothing.

Life Group Questions

Getting to Know You:

1. What is the craziest thing you have done to be accepted by others?

Digging Deeper:

1. Read Matthew 5:17-18, Romans 3:19-20, 31, Romans 5:20-6:14 and James 2:18-20. What was the purpose of the Law when we are justified by grace? How is the Law still relevant? A Pew study found that 62% of U.S. adults identify as Christians, but only 20% attend church weekly. What does this reflect about the American 'Christian'? How would you respond to someone who said, "Since I am not under the law, I am free to do what I want"?
2. Read Galatians 2:17-21, Ephesians 1:2-14, and Ephesians 2:8-10. What do we possess as children of God? If we are accepted by faith, why do many Christians feel they have to work for God's acceptance? How does trying to gain God's favor minimize His grace? Since Christ already accepts us, what should our motivation for good works be?
3. Read Romans 6:5-11, Romans 12:1-3, 1 Corinthians 9:19-23, Galatians 2:20, and Galatians 5:24. What does it look like to be crucified with Christ? How would you counsel someone who is struggling with sin? Read John 14:12, Galatians 5:16, and Philippians 4:10-13. What should it look like to live in resurrection power?

Taking it Home:

1. Take a moment to reflect on your motivation for doing good works. Is it so you won't feel guilty for not obeying? Could it be because you want God's acceptance? Prayerfully accept His unconditional love and determine to live your life in response to it.
