On the CCC Mobile APP or at

Getting to Know You:

1. Whether or not you have been to Israel, list what you consider to be the "can't miss" sites in the land. Why is that location so impressive or important to you?
2. Do you think that anti-Israel or anti-Jewish prejudice has increased, decreased, remained consistent, or ebbed and flowed over the years? Describe your experience with and historical examples of antisemitism to clarify your point of view.

Digging Deeper:

1. Read Ezekiel 20:9-12 and 36:22-31. What does God say is ultimately the reason for everything He has promised and accomplished through Israel? What does that imply about why He has and will accomplish His plans through you? Why is that important to remember? (Philippians 1:6, Ephesians 1:5-6, and Romans 11:29-36)
2. Although Jesus came as the Jewish Messiah, what can you infer about Jesus' opinion of Gentiles as you read Matthew 8:5-13, Matthew 15:21-28, and John 10:16?
3. Read Ephesians 2:11-22 and Galatians 2:11-21 and discuss the relationship between the Jews and Gentiles concerning redemption. Consider Romans 1:16-17, Romans 2:6-12 and 23-29 in your discussion.

Taking it Home:

1. What is your biggest takeaway from this Israel series? How has it impacted your perspective toward God and His people?
2. Why do you think the idea of the Gospel liberating a Jewish person from what they understand to be their rich history, traditions, identity, and birthright is often rejected? How will you present the Gospel differently now that you better understand Israel and God's promises to them?
