Drawing Near:
Silence & Solitude

Psalm 62

---

Silence and Solitude:

*Drawing back from noise and others
that we might draw near to God*

1.) What do you not like about being in silence and solitude?

2.) What do you enjoy about being in silence and solitude?

3.) What word pictures are used to describe God in Psalm 62?
What do these descriptions mean to you?

4.) In Psalm 62, David uses the phrases "God alone", "He alone", and "He only" in reference to God. What does it mean to you to trust in "God alone"?

4.) We need to get alone in order to experience more of God alone. What can you change in your life in order to create space to be with God in silence and solitude?
