That's Just Your Interpretation

It's all too common for someone to point out something the Bible says and have somebody respond, "Well, that's just your interpretation," as if when it comes to what the Bible says there's nothing more than personal opinion. But is that true? Is interpreting the Bible just the reader's opinion, completely subjective, so that when it comes to the Bible it's a free-for-all? Believe what you want, read it how you wish, because it doesn't say anything definitive?

I'm afraid that's a cultural myth. There's an actual field of study for interpretation called hermeneutics defined as "the science of interpretation." And it is a science—a series of steps, practices, disciplines and rules that apply to interpretation.

But make no mistake—99% of the Bible doesn't take any heavy lifting in regard to interpretation. Here's some quick reading. In the Old Testament book of Deuteronomy it says, "Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one" (6:4, NIV). So is there one God or two? One! In the Old Testament book of Exodus it says, "You shall not steal" (20:15, NIV). Is it okay to steal or not? It's not! In the New Testament book of I Thessalonians it says, "... Jesus died and rose again" (4:14, NIV). Did Jesus die and rise again or not? The Bible says that He did. So is the Bible obscure in its meaning? No.

So why do so many claim that the Bible is difficult to understand? For some, it's not in trying to grasp the most obvious reading, but in accepting the implications of that reading. It's interesting how when you don't like something you read, you can suddenly find yourself having a hard time understanding.

Lee Strobel says to pretend that your daughter and her boyfriend are going out for a Coke on a school night. You say to her, "You must be home before 11." Now suppose it gets to be 10:45 and the two of them are still having a great time. They don't want the evening to end, so suddenly they begin to have difficulty interpreting your instructions. They say: "What did he really mean when he said, 'You must be home before 11?' Did he literally mean us or was he talking about you in a general sense, like people in general? Was he saying, in effect, 'As a general rule, people must be home before 11?' Or was he just making the observation that generally, people are in their homes before 11? I mean, he wasn't very clear, was he?"

"And what did he mean by, 'You must be home before 11?' Would a loving father be so adamant and inflexible? He probably meant it as a suggestion. I know he loves me, so isn't it implicit that he wants me to have a good time? And I am having fun, so he wouldn't want me to end the evening so soon.

"And what did he mean by, 'You must be home before 11?' He didn't specify whose home. It could be anybody's home. Maybe he meant it figuratively. Remember the old saying, 'Home is where the heart is?' My heart is right here, out having a Coke, so doesn't that mean I'm already home?"

"And what did he really mean when he said, 'You must be home before 11?' Did he mean that in an exact, literal sense? Besides, he never specified 11 p.m. or 11 a.m. And he wasn't really clear on whether he was talking about Central Standard Time or Eastern Standard Time. I mean, it's still only quarter to seven in Honolulu. And as a matter of fact, when you think about it, it's always before 11. Whatever time it is, it's always before the next 11. So with all of these ambiguities, we can't really be sure what he meant at all. If he can't make himself clearer, we certainly can't be held responsible."

There's no doubt that some parts of the Bible are hard to understand. It reflects the places, histories, cultures and languages of places long ago and far away. Sometimes it helps to have some background information on those issues to get the best sense of it, and there are some passages that people might disagree about. But on the essential teachings and issues, the Bible leaves little room for confusion.

As Mark Twain was known to have quipped, "It's not the parts of the Bible I don't understand that disturb me, rather it's the parts of the Bible that I do understand that disturb me."

Think on that.

Blessings,

Pastor David

Spiritual R & R

Read Mark 1:35 (ESV)

And rising very early in the morning, while it was still dark, he departed and went out to a desolate place, and there he prayed.

Reflect

How often do you spend time alone with God and why is it important?

Jesus kept a full schedule. During His years of ministry, He was often on His feet. He traveled around and taught huge crowds of people. Because He performed miracles and healed the sick, He was often sought after. In fact, in the verses that follow the above passage, Simon and the other disciples found Jesus while He was praying alone and said to Him, “Everyone is looking for you” (Mark 1:37). It had to have been exhausting. But Jesus modeled an important concept to us—setting aside time for rest and prayer.

Many of us are living life constantly on the go. We work hard and we play hard. Plus, most of us have many people who make demands on our time. Sometimes, it can feel like everyone is looking for us and everyone wants something from us. What are we supposed to do to keep from getting burnt out and overwhelmed? We need to follow Jesus’ example, find a secluded place and spend some time alone with the Lord in prayer.

God knew we needed rest. But what kind of rest is best? In the Law, God said: “Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days you shall labor, and do all your work, but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work” (Exodus 20:8-10). The Sabbath was a day for God’s people to rest from their labor and to get refreshed and replenished. But more than that, it was meant to be a holy day. A day to focus on who God is and what He did for them. We are no longer under the law but the concept of setting aside time to rest and focus on the Lord is still an important spiritual discipline.

If we spend all of our leisure time resting in the ways of the world, we might not be as tired as we were, but we will not be as refreshed as we could be. Whatever is streaming on TV is a poor substitute for the time we spend communing and fellowshiping with the Lord. It is time with Him that fills us up and allows us to pour into the lives of those around. He is the One who strengthens us and enables us to fulfill the purposes that He has for our lives.

Friends, we are human beings. We get exhausted and weary. We need to take the time to rest. But more than just putting our feet up, we need to get in the Word and we need to talk to God. We encourage you to follow Jesus’ example and find some time to go off by yourself and pray today. The spiritual R&R will refresh your soul.

Pray

Lord, some days I am so exhausted and overwhelmed. But when I rest in You, it is so good for my soul. Thank You for refreshing my spirit and giving me the strength I need to face each day. Amen.

SAMUEL: THE MAKING OF A SPIRITUAL LEADER

We often wonder about the childhoods of great people. We have little information about the early years of most of the people mentioned in the Bible. One delightful exception is Samuel; he came as a result of God’s answer to Hannah’s fervent prayer for a child. (In fact, the name Samuel comes from the Hebrew expression, ‘heard of God.’) God shaped Samuel from the start. Like Moses, Samuel was called to fill many different roles: judge, priest, prophet, counselor, and God’s man at a turning point in the history of Israel. God worked through Samuel because Samuel was willing to be one thing: God’s servant.

Join us for worship each week this spring for this 7-part biographical study entitled “Samuel: The Making of a Spiritual Leader.” Together we will learn so many practical lessons just by looking at how God dealt with one individual who was open to his leading.

Be Doers of the Word and Not Hearers Only

James 1:19-27

So then, my beloved BRETHREN, let every man be SWIFT to HEAR, SLOW to SPEAK, slow to WRATH; for the wrath of man does not PRODUCE the RIGHTEOUSNESS of God.

Therefore LAY ASIDE all FILTHINESS and OVERFLOW of wickedness, and receive with MEEKNESS the IMPLANTED word, which is able to SAVE your SOULS.

But be DOERS of the word, and not HEARERS only, DECEIVING yourselves. For if ANYONE is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man OBSERVING his NATURAL face in a MIRROR; for he observes himself, GOES AWAY, and immediately FORGETS what kind of man he was. But he who looks into the perfect LAW of LIBERTY and CONTINUES in it, and is not a forgetful hearer but a doer of the WORK, this one will be blessed in what he does.

If anyone among you thinks he is RELIGIOUS, and does not BRIDLE his TONGUE but deceives his own heart, this one's religion is USELESS. Pure and UNDEFILED religion before God and the Father is this: to visit ORPHANS and WIDOWS in their TROUBLE, and to keep oneself UNSPOTTED from the WORLD.

- Camp Nebowa cleanup dates are April 23 and April 30.
- Midwest Christian Services will have sessions at Camp Nebowa on August 2nd and 3rd this summer.

Fellowship & Worship

- Easter Services there will be a Good Friday Service at 6:30 p.m. and Sunday morning Easter worship will be at 9 a.m.
- The board finalized their plans for the Easter breakfast that will take place from 8 a.m.—8:45 a.m.

Buildings and Grounds

- Larry Heschke is going to check in with Valley Glass to see if the door for the lower southwest door has been ordered.
- The excess furniture in the chapel will be removed from the chapel this week to be donated.

New Business

- The downspout on the west side of the building needs repaired. Barry Nelson said he would try to fix it.
- There was some discussion about spring cleaning and maintenance for the church. Kirk Nelson said he would respread the gravel in the parking lot. Larry Heschke said he would get with Joe Draper and develop a to-do list.
- The board was asked about offering Vacation Bible School this summer and it was suggested that they ask the Bible Buddy volunteers about offering VBS.
- Larry Heschke and Joe Draper got an estimate for new gutters and downspouts with leaf guards for the parsonage. There were questions about the soffits and roofing and whether that should be done before new gutters. Otherwise the new gutters would have to be taken off again should the roof and soffits ever get replaced. Larry and Joe said they would check into those. The bid for the gutters, downspouts, and leaf guards was from Guarantee Gutter at a price of $2,614.00. No action was taken at this time.

The next board meeting will take place on May 15, 2022 following Bible Classes.
