

In the Gospels, Jesus never seemed too interested in fans. His consistent call was to follow. Because following requires fixing our eyes on our leader. Following requires us to move. It takes us on a journey beyond our own comfort and into places we've never known. So how would you define your relationship with Jesus? Are you an "enthusiastic admirer"? Close enough to Jesus to get the benefits but not so close to require sacrifice? Or will you choose to follow Him and live unleashed like never before?

— Two characteristics that separate fans from followers:
