

This Mother's Day message invites us to look beyond the surface of a familiar story and discover why God chose Mary to be the mother of Jesus. In Luke 1:26–56, we see that Mary was not chosen by accident, but because of what she already had and because of what God knew she would become. As we explore her life, we are challenged to examine our own faith, trust in God's power, and commitment to living as His servants, no matter our role or season of life.

I. What Mary already _____.

A. She had the _____.

B. She had a _____.

C. She understood the need for _____.

II. What Mary would _____.

A. She became _____ in _____.

B. She would be _____ in _____ and _____.