

Romans 8:28 says that we know that in all things God works for good. The words “we know” don’t mean we hope, or we’re optimistic, or we wish. They mean absolute, unshakable confidence. As the world around us seems to be stopping, and as the curse seems more real than ever, we can trust with great confidence that, even still, God never stops working.

How does God work for our good?

- By allowing us to make a _____ in the world.
- By making us _____ like _____.
- By using anything and everything that happens to _____ us _____ to Jesus.

Sometimes the _____ good comes out of the _____ bad.
