

The Power of Sin

2 Samuel 11:1-27

Even Bible heroes have their flaws. Abraham, as great as he was, made mistakes. So did Jacob, Moses, Samson, and Solomon. The Bible doesn't try to depict any of them as perfect people. But sometimes it's painful to see someone you hold in high regard make mistakes. And that's especially true of King David.

- When things are going good, we have a tendency to let our _____ down.
- Spiritual attacks don't usually come when we are _____.
- Three observations:
  1. The _____ of temptation.
    - The more you try to satisfy your lusts, the _____ those desires become.
  2. The _____ of sin.
  3. The _____ of Jesus Christ.
- In this chapter, David is someone who needs a _____.
