

His Flawless Character

Jesus: The Dynamic Leader – Part 1

Luke 4:1-13

In each of our lives, there is a life-and-death struggle going on for control of our hearts. Satan would deliberately plunge us into despair and death. The Lord seeks to lift us up to hope and life. The crucial question is, whom do we allow to take control? Luke 4 relates how Jesus faced that same struggle yet remained flawless in His character. Let's look at the passage and learn from His experience, then discuss how we can give Him control of our lives and allow Him to lead us to spiritual victory.

I. The _____ of Satan.

- A. You might believe that Jesus was _____ from temptation.
- B. Satan attacks _____, even the _____.
- C. Temptation itself is not a _____; it is a call to _____.
- D. While Satan came to Jesus personally, he usually comes to us _____.

II. The _____ of Jesus.

- A. Jesus was tempted to indulge in _____.
- B. Jesus was enticed with a temptation to _____.
- C. Jesus was tempted with _____ and _____.

III. The Lesson for Us.

- A. The lesson for us is that just as _____ won the victory, so _____ can win the victory.
 1. Be _____ by the victory of Christ.
 2. Understand the lethal _____ of sin.
 3. _____ and _____ the Word of God.
 4. Pray _____ for the filling of the Holy Spirit.
 5. _____ and _____ your areas of weakness.
 6. Value _____ more than _____.