

You can look at a baby picture of most of us and see a slight resemblance. But when you look at Jesus Christ at his birth and then see him at his resurrection, you will see the same character. He was consistently the same. As we study the resurrection appearance of Jesus Christ on the road to Emmaus, let's see the similarities to Jesus' incarnation of Luke 2. Hopefully, we will be reinforced in the conviction that Jesus is uniquely the Son of God and the King of Kings.

I. Jesus' _____ nature. (vv. 13-18)

- A. Jesus deliberately _____ his identity from the men.
- B. His humble appearance to the men is consistent with the _____ way he came into the world.
- C. When Jesus comes to _____, he comes in a very unassuming way.

II. Jesus' _____ patience. (vv. 19-24)

- A. Jesus' _____ was impressive.
- B. God waited thousands of years for exactly the _____ for the birth of his Son.
- C. God's patience with _____ is still amazing.

III. Jesus' _____ teaching. (vv. 25-29)

- A. The men finished their explanation and Jesus began to teach them about what the _____ predicted about the coming Messiah.
- B. From the time Jesus arrived, he _____ people with his teaching.
- C. During the Christmas season, we need to take every opportunity to teach our _____ that Jesus is the reason for the season.

IV. Jesus' _____ power. (vv. 30-35)

- A. He transformed the two _____ in a few minutes time.
- B. From the time Jesus arrived in Bethlehem, he has been in the business of transforming people's _____.
- C. Jesus Christ can transform YOU if you will let him.
 - 1. From a sinner condemned to die to a sinner _____ by grace.
 - 2. From a stranger and alien to God to one _____ into His family and brought near.
 - 3. From a cynical skeptic to a _____ believer.

4. From living for the shallow pleasures of this world to living for an _____ purpose.

5. From being consumed by the material things of this world to being enamored with the things of the

_____.