

Resurrections have a way of changing things. And when the Son of God came up from the grave, He was validating His own deity, as well as giving those who follow Him hope for life beyond this one. What a transformation that took place from Friday to Sunday. Today, on this Easter Sunday, let's take a closer look at His resurrection.

I. The resurrection is _____.

- A. It is foundational as evidenced by the fact that it was _____.
- B. It is foundational as evidenced by the fact that it is _____ to the faith.

II. The resurrection is _____.

- A. For a resurrection to occur, a _____ is required.
- B. A _____ is also required for the event to be believable.
- C. _____ and _____ witnesses were necessary for the resurrection to be accepted.

III. The resurrection is _____.

- A. Some say we just _____.
- B. Others think that when they die, _____.
- C. Our bodies will be resurrected as _____ bodies.