

The word we are honing in on today is the word complacent. That word doesn't sound very dangerous or threatening. But what if someone told you that the greatest threat to the world today is a church full of complacent followers of Jesus? Let's look at a couple of stories from the Book of Acts that demonstrate the difference between complacency and commitment.

— One of the ways we see the power of God at work through the church is in taking _____ of people who are in _____.

— The early church demonstrated their commitment through _____.

— The early church helped people by giving _____ the church.

— Some descriptions of complacency:

1. Complacency is a feeling of _____ that settles in over a period of time.
2. Complacency is the inner voice that convinces us that _____ will do something.
3. Complacency is often disguised as _____.
4. Complacency is an unhealthy and unaware, _____ - _____ with your life.

5. Complacency is _____ when an impending threat calls for _____.

6. Complacency is making a choice to play it _____ and take it _____.
