

Following Jesus will always call us out of our regular routine and into a life of Spirit-led risk. For one person, an Ethiopian eunuch, life was transformed because a believer stepped out of his routine and moved with the prompting of the Spirit. We see from this chapter, that the Holy Spirit moves us from a life of routine to one that takes risks through leaning into small promptings and asking simple questions ... even if it's a little illogical and uncertain.

— Some ways you know you're stuck in a rut:

1. Every day feels the _____.
2. You feel _____.
3. You _____ yourself with distractions.
4. You know you need to make a _____ but feel there's nothing you can do about it.

— Lessons to be learned from the story of the Ethiopian Eunuch:

- God wants to work _____ you to impact the lives of those _____ you.
- God will go to _____ lengths to reach just _____ person.
