

A Friend of the Fearful
Jesus: Savior & Friend – Part 5
Luke 8:22-25

Do you have a storm in your forecast? We all have storms that come into our lives. And amid these storms, we often find ourselves questioning God's ability to take care of us. It is so easy to become overwhelmed by fears and wonder if God has the power to calm our storm. So, let's look at how Jesus calmed the storm with his friends, and then we can see how this friend of ours can calm the storms in our lives as well.

I. From _____ to _____.

A. Jesus was _____ from a long day of teaching and he goes to _____ just as the ship leaves for the opposite shore.

B. As Jesus slept a _____ burst upon the scene.

C. The problem for the disciples was not the _____ around them, but the _____ within them.

II. From _____ to _____.

A. Jesus calmed the _____.

B. Jesus calmed the _____ and the _____ as well.

III. From fear of _____ to fear of _____.

A. There is an _____ fear—a fear of _____ and of _____.

B. There is also a _____ fear—a fear of _____ and an acknowledgement of _____ he is.

C. The more we fear and _____ the Creator, the less we fear and _____ the circumstances and problems.

D. When we encounter storms in life, we need to go to Jesus for several reasons:

1. He is never _____.

2. He has the power to _____ any problem.

3. He is _____ with us.

4. He is the _____ of _____.

5. He conquered the _____.