

In today's text, Jesus stands before Pilate and declares, "My Kingdom is not of this world." With those words, He reminds us that His kingdom operates on an entirely different foundation than the systems around us. While the kingdoms of this world chase power, money, and politics, the Kingdom of God advances through mercy, humility, and love. In this message, we're reminded that Christ's kingdom is both real and present.

- Reasons why "the Dones" say they're leaving the church:
 1. The church is too hung up on _____ and _____.
 2. The church is too focused on _____.
 3. The church is too involved with _____.
- The Kingdom of God encompasses the _____ (or reign) of God.
- Through the Kingdom of Heaven, God is working to _____, redeem, _____, and renew His world.
- Jesus did more than just announce God's kingdom, He _____ people what God's kingdom looks like.
- The challenge for the week ahead is to pray the Lord's Prayer at least once each day:
