

Only the Penitent Shall Pass

2 Samuel 12:1-25

King David was a man who genuinely loved God. But there was a part of his life that he never fully submitted to the authority of the Lord. He allowed sin to get a foothold in his life, and that led him to a place where he did some things that, in the earlier years of his life, David never would have imagined himself doing.

- The natural response to sin is not _____.
- The natural response to sin is not repentance, but _____.
- David lived every day with the _____ of what he had done.
- David's misery was a sign that he truly _____ God.
- David's flagrant sins were an _____ to God.
- God comes to us as a father, wanting to _____ the relationship.
 1. The _____ of God's Word.
 2. God's Word should lead us to _____.
 3. Our conviction should lead us to _____.
 4. Conviction and confession lead to _____.
 5. Sin always has _____.
 6. God's _____ is still at work.