

Think about the Christmas story recorded in Luke 2. Is there any truth to it, or is it simply some mythical story passed down to make us feel better about ourselves? Put another way, is Christmas a well-orchestrated coping mechanism, or is it the welcoming of a newborn king? How we answer that question—whether we choose to believe it or not—has eternal implications.

I. The angel announced _____ . (2:7-15)

II. The shepherds respond _____ . (2:16)

III. Jesus touched their _____ . (2:17-20)

Not Just Another Story