

If we want to live for God's glory, we must trust Him to prune our hearts, cutting away the old to prepare for the new. There is no better place to lay our brokenness than in the Gardener's loving hands.

Steps to prepare us for our journey on a new path:

1. Think _____, not _____.

2. Think _____, not _____.

3. Think _____, not _____.

4. Think _____, not _____.

5. Think _____ power, not _____.
