

The Believers: Inspired by the Cross
The Impact of the Cross – Part 6
Luke 24:13-35

On the Sunday evening following the crucifixion, two of Jesus' followers began walking to Emmaus, a village about seven miles from Jerusalem. What happened to them on the Road to Emmaus turned the cross from a symbol of death and hopelessness to a message of inspiration.

I. The road to _____. (24:13-27)

- A. These two men were _____, not inspired, as they left Jerusalem. (vv. 13-24)
- B. Have you ever been _____ of God's plan for your life?
- C. Jesus began to teach them the _____ about himself. (vv. 25-27)
- D. We are not much _____ than those two walking toward Emmaus.

II. The return to _____. (24:28-36)

- A. Jesus is a _____. (v. 28)
- B. Jesus' presence always _____ life. (v. 29)
- C. Jesus is not satisfied just being a _____ in our life, He wants to be the _____. (v. 30)
- D. Suddenly the two _____ Jesus. (v. 31)
- E. "Were not our hearts _____?" (v. 32)
- F. They _____ at once to Jerusalem. (v. 33)
- G. Picture the _____ in Jerusalem that night! (vv. 34-35)

III. The lessons for us.

- A. No matter how deep your despair, there is _____.
- B. No matter how disoriented your life, _____ Jesus in.
