

From Darkness to Light Luke 18:35-43

Some of the most inspirational people we may ever meet are those who suffer from blindness. We've all heard stories of the remarkable things that certain blind people have been able to achieve. Of course, blind people are imperfect people. Like the rest of us, they are sinners who need forgiveness and hope. Like each of us, they need to receive spiritual sight and move from darkness to light. In this message let's look at a blind man who inspired other people because of the transformation that Jesus Christ performed in his life.
