

Innocence

Jesus: Ruler of My Personality – Part 7 Luke 18:15-17

A baby can melt the heart of the cynic, open the checkbook of the miser, bring a smile to the joyless, and give hope to the despairing. A child can be a powerful influence upon a person's life. Jesus tells us that we need to become like a child to enter the kingdom of God. Let's look at three different characteristics of an innocent child that we should emulate.

I. Childlike _____

- A. A young child is innocent about _____.
- B. Adult Christians are to _____ that childlike purity.
- C. Keep your _____ from evil.
- D. Teenagers, be _____ about what is evil.

II. Childlike _____

- A. It's fun to watch a child _____ something for the first time.
- B. We need that childlike _____ in our lives.
- C. Come to _____ with childlike wonder.
- D. Come to _____ with childlike wonder.

III. Childlike _____

- A. A childlike faith finds it _____ to believe in God.
- B. To _____ God, we must develop an innocent childlike faith.
