

WEEK 3

David Hall

From Legalism to Liberty

1 Corinthians 8–10

Knowledge must be balanced by _____ . (1 Corinthians 8)

Knowledge _____ up, but _____ builds up.

_____ can become a _____ from the real priority.

Key verse — 1 Corinthians 8:9 (NIV):

Be careful, however, that the exercise of your freedom does not become a stumbling block to the weak.

We should love one another _____ than our _____ .

Authority must be balanced by _____ . (1 Corinthians 9)

We are to _____ our freedoms in Christ but should not always _____ those freedoms.

Key verse — 1 Corinthians 9:22-23 (NIV):

To the weak I became weak, to win the weak. I have become all things to all men so that by all possible means I might save some. I do all this for the sake of the gospel, that I may share in its blessings.

The overriding goal is to _____ people to _____ and one _____ .

Experience must be balanced by _____ . (1 Corinthians 10:1-22)

Key verse — Galatians 6:1 (NIV):

Brothers, if someone is caught in a sin, you who are spiritual should restore him gently. But watch yourself, or you also may be tempted.

Freedom must be balanced by _____ . (1 Corinthians 10:23-33)

Key verse — 1 Corinthians 10:31 (NIV):

So whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God.

Regardless of what you decide to do, make certain that you can do it for the _____ of _____ .

Four questions to help you determine the difference between liberty and legalism:

1. Will my behavior lead me to _____ or _____ ? (1 Corinthians 6:12)
2. Will this decision be a _____ or _____ for others? (1 Corinthians 8:13)
3. Will these actions only _____ me or glorify _____ ? (1 Corinthians 10:31)
4. Will your choices help to win _____ people to Christ or _____ them _____ ?
(1 Corinthians 10:33)

Note: The main headings of the outline and some of the concluding questions come from Christian author Warren Wiersbe.
