

God's people had been waiting and waiting for a promised Messiah. In fact, they had been waiting for so long that many of them in Jerusalem that night before Christmas had lost hope. They weren't waiting with an eager expectation. It had been centuries since they had heard from God. When we lose hope, here is how we tend to respond:

We become _____.

We become _____.

We become _____.

God's people had been waiting and waiting for a promised Messiah. In fact, they had been waiting for so long that many of them in Jerusalem that night before Christmas had lost hope. They weren't waiting with an eager expectation. It had been centuries since they had heard from God. When we lose hope, here is how we tend to respond:

We become _____.

We become _____.

We become _____.