

In John 11 we see Jesus call Lazarus out of the tomb, reminding us that God’s power brings life even into our most helpless situations. This miracle is more than a story from the past—it is a sign pointing us to the hope we need today. As you listen today, consider: what is your Lazarus—the place where you need God’s life-giving power?

- What do these Bible stories have to do with _____?
- Signs point to _____.
- The signs in John point to _____ Jesus is and what God is _____ in the world through Jesus.
- Lazarus stands for everything in our lives that causes us to feel _____.
- The sign in the story of Lazarus points to three important truths.
 - Something you need to _____.
 - God is _____ with you.
 - Something you need to _____.
 - God’s most awesome work is done in the places that are _____ the most.
 - Something you need to _____.
 - _____ the stone.
 - _____ it and let it _____.
- Let the story of Lazarus be a _____.

- A sign that God _____ with those who _____.
- A sign that God does his most _____ work in the most _____ places.
- A sign that leads us to roll away the stone from our _____ and set one another _____.