

Even after months of planning, most weddings will have a least one glitch – at least one thing that doesn’t go exactly right. We work so hard to make weddings a special time. But life rarely runs as smoothly as we want it to, and that’s especially true of weddings. In today’s text, Jesus attended a wedding celebration where the wine ran out. The question is, where do we go when the “wine” runs out.

- There are two reasons that we need to go to Jesus:

1. Because we know he can do _____ things.

- There is no _____ that is too big for our God to handle.
- Jesus didn’t just come to give us _____; he came to give us _____.

2. Because we know he _____ about the _____ things of our lives.
