

Healing a Divided Nation

2 Samuel 19:8-43

In recent years our nation has become deeply divided. We understand that politics are politics. There has always been name calling and choosing up sides, gridlock in Congress and such. But it seems different now. It has worked its way out of Washington, D.C., and now it's dividing our communities, it's dividing our families, it's dividing our churches. So, what is the remedy? Let's learn from King David as we see him try to reunite the nation of Israel.

- Once you know what your mission is, don't allow anything to _____ you.
- The solution is not in _____.
- Law doesn't have the ability to change the _____.
- Change will only come about when people have a radical encounter with _____.
- God has given _____ the ministry of reconciliation.
- If Christians were as passionate about the _____ as they are about _____, we would see real changes in our community.

- Our mission is to bring about reconciliation and we can't afford to get _____.
- Our mission is to bring _____ to this world by bringing people to _____.
