Christians have been anticipating the return of Jesus for 2000 years. The closer we get to Christ’s return, the more important it becomes that we be accurately informed about what’s going to transpire at His return. Today’s scripture passage reveals three things that Christ will accomplish at His return

I. Jesus is coming again to _____.

A. We have trouble understanding God’s justice for two reasons:

1. God’s justice is almost always _____.
2. Our judicial system is so skewed that we’ve almost eliminated any _____.

B. God will not allow sin to go _____.

II. Jesus is coming again to _____ the _____.

A. The first time that Jesus was here He relieved the _____.

B. When _____ hurt, _____ hurts.

III. Jesus is coming again to _____ His _____.

A. Jesus Christ is still the object of _____ today.

B. We are going toward one great _____, when the skies are going to light up and Jesus Christ is going to return as King of kings.

C. When Jesus comes, you are either going to be under His _____, or under His _____.
