

Today we begin a new series of messages based on Paul's letter to the Galatians. It is a series about finding freedom, because freedom in Christ is a very important theme in this book. Galatians has also been referred to as "the gospel of grace" because the subject of God's grace is another key theme. Let's consider why this letter was written and why it is important to us today.

- If we were able to keep the _____ perfectly, we wouldn't need God's _____.
- Many have the idea that our status with God is determined by how much we have _____.
- We have trouble accepting the concept of grace because we _____.
- Law appeals to our _____.
- The concept of law is more _____.
- Law is easier to _____.
- Law makes it easier to _____ people.
- Law seems _____.
- _____ and _____ have never gotten along
