

The Tender Love of God

Hosea: A Divine Love Story – Part 4

Hosea 2:14-23

In a world that often expects judgment after failure, Hosea 2:14–23 reveals the astonishing tenderness of God's heart. This passage reminds us that God's love pursues the undeserving, transforms valleys of trouble into doors of hope, and invites wandering hearts back into a restored relationship with Him. As we study this beautiful text, we will discover that God's greatest desire is not merely to correct His people, but to lovingly draw them back to Himself with grace, mercy, and unwavering covenant love.

- Today's scripture passage reveals the _____ language of _____ love. (vv. 14-15)
- The means by which God woos and wins the _____ is through _____, spoken words.
- The Applications for Us:
 1. God will _____ to your heart. (Ro 10:17)
 2. Don't view the wilderness primarily as a woodshed of _____ so much as a wedding chapel filled with words of _____.
 3. God is able to transform your past _____ into the ground of future _____.
 4. The appropriate response to God's tender love is the confession, "_____."
 5. God himself is willing to _____ the _____ that will secure your love.