

In John chapter 7, we find Jesus at the center of intense public debate during the Jewish Festival of Shelters. Just as political candidates today face scrutiny and divided opinions, Jesus encountered a spectrum of responses from the crowds in Jerusalem. Yet amid all the conflicting voices and opinions, the fundamental question remains unchanged for every person: What will you do with Jesus?

I. We can believe he was just a _____.

II. We can believe he was a _____.

III. We can believe he was a _____.

IV. We can believe he was and is the _____, the one and only _____ of God, the _____ of the world.
