

In the Galatian churches there were some false teachers, known as Judaizers, who were teaching a different gospel than what Paul preached to the church. They were not only attacking Paul's message of grace and faith, but they were also attacking Paul personally. Let's look today at how Paul responded to them.

- Paul makes it _____ where he got his message.
- His message came directly from _____.
- We must constantly ask ourselves the question, "Who am _____ really trying to _____?"
- Our motivation must always be to _____ and him alone.
- Our longing for the _____ of others is one of the greatest _____ factors in our spiritual lives.
- It's important that we know _____ our faith comes from.
