

In today's text, we meet a woman who opened up her heart, and out of that opened up her life to a story that was bigger than herself—a story that only God could write. For some of us, we've worshipped God, but we've never really opened our heart to the message of Jesus shaping our everyday life and it's time to change that. We are truly unleashed when we open up our heart and every aspect of our lives – relationships, resources, and residences to kingdom significance.

- God calls us to live a life of _____.
- A life of significance doesn't always look like _____.
- Living a life of success doesn't always make you feel like you're _____.
- Living a life of significance is having a vision for _____.
- Living a life of significance is showing up to the _____ and _____ that are in front of you.
- Living a life of significance is _____ what you have so others can have the _____ of Jesus.