

Where is Your Allegiance?

2 Samuel 3:6-39

What do you call someone who switches sides in the middle of a war to join up with the enemy? That all depends on whether he's joining your side or joining the other side. If someone leaves your enemy and joins up with your side, that's not such a bad thing. But if someone leaves your side and joins up with the enemy, well, we have names for that.

- Abner was always doing what was best for _____.
- Abner attempted to take _____ place.
- Abner wanted to _____ David.
- David failed to _____ Joab.
- Abner was guilty of a _____ allegiance.
- Abner's _____ allegiance was to himself.