

Wisdom shapes the decisions we make every day, and few things influence those decisions more than the voices we choose to listen to. In today's message from Proverbs, we are reminded that while experience can teach us valuable lessons, God also invites us to grow wiser by receiving godly counsel. As we continue our series Walking in Wisdom, this sermon challenges us to examine how we seek advice, who we listen to, and whether we are humble and open enough to hear truth—even when it's hard.

When it comes to taking advice...

I. Be _____

A. Before seeking advice, look for these things:

1. Look for someone who has _____.
2. Find someone who has your _____ at heart.
3. Find someone who has the courage to be _____ with you.

II. Be _____

III. Be _____
