

In today's message we are going to look at how God goes about bringing Jonah back home. As we see how God dealt with Jonah, we're going to learn something about how God deals with us when we try to run away from him.

I. God will often send _____ to get our _____.

II. Sometimes God allows others to _____ because of our _____.

III. God will sometimes send someone to _____ us _____.

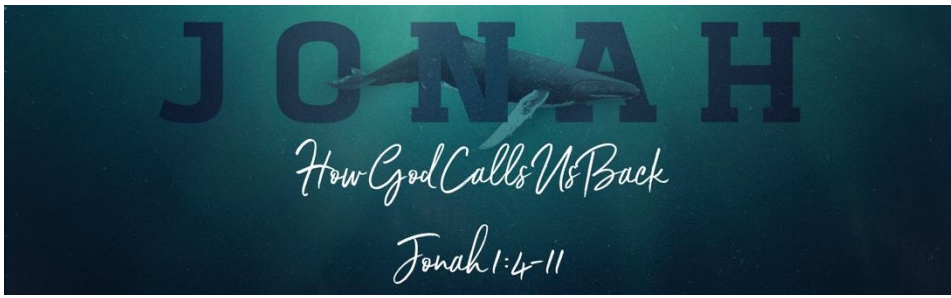

- Satan knows how to put us to _____ while the world is _____ in all around us.
- The world doesn't want our _____, but the world wants our _____.

IV. God will _____ our _____.

V. God makes us face the _____ of our own _____ decisions.

- These _____ men have more _____ than the prophet of God does.
- The Lord often uses _____ times to wake people up so that they will _____ out to him.
- From Jonah, we learn that the storms will often _____ until we stop _____ from God.

VI. God reveals his _____ in the midst of _____.

In today's message we are going to look at how God goes about bringing Jonah back home. As we see how God dealt with Jonah, we're going to learn something about how God deals with us when we try to run away from him.

- These _____ men have more _____ than the prophet of God does.
- The Lord often uses _____ times to wake people up so that they will _____ out to him.
- From Jonah, we learn that the storms will often _____ until we stop _____ from God.

XII. God reveals his _____ in the midst of _____.

VII. God will often send _____ to get our _____.

VIII. Sometimes God allows others to _____ because of our _____.

IX. God will sometimes send someone to _____ us _____.

- Satan knows how to put us to _____ while the world is _____ in all around us.
- The world doesn't want our _____, but the world wants our _____.

X. God will _____ our _____.

XI. God makes us face the _____ of our own _____ decisions.