

Spirit-Led Freedom

Galatians 5:13-18

In our study of Galatians thus far, Paul has said some pretty negative things about law, some of which may have you wondering where all of this is going. If we take all the rules away, what's going to restrain Christians? In the last two chapters of this book, Paul addresses that question.

- As long as a Christian lives, he will _____ his _____ nature.
- The problem with the law approach is that no amount of _____ rules can change an _____ desire.
- If you think you can subdue the flesh by way of willpower, you have severely underestimated the “_____” of your flesh.
- Paul says there is a better way – the way of the _____.
- Marks of Spirit-led freedom:
  1. Spirit-led freedom does not _____ the _____.
  2. Spirit-led freedom will _____ others in _____.

Liberty – Love = Freedom to sin

Liberty + love = Service to others

3. Spirit-led freedom will lead us to _____ the _____.
- Things necessary to be led by the Spirit:
    1. _____ to the Spirit.
    2. _____ to the Spirit.
    3. _____ the Spirit.
