

In today's message from John chapter 8, we encounter one of the most compelling stories of grace and mercy in all of Scripture. When the religious leaders drag a woman caught in adultery before Jesus, they believe they have set the perfect trap—one that will finally corner the Teacher in an impossible situation. But as we'll discover, their carefully laid snare becomes a powerful demonstration of Christ's wisdom, compassion, and transforming love.

- Lessons we learn from Jesus based on this encounter:
 - He views us with _____ and _____ about us.
 - He gives us a _____.
 - He expresses _____ in us.
