

"Who was Jesus?" Life magazine posed that question to its readers on the cover of one of the editions of its magazine. Some classify Jesus as a good moral teacher who should be respected. Others suggest he was self-deluded, a madman who claimed supernatural powers and attracted a handful of followers. Who is Jesus? The answer to that question will dramatically impact how you think, feel, and behave every day. In Luke 19, we find three snapshots of Jesus—three pictures that teach us who Jesus really is.
