

Occasionally, the people we admire the most do something to prove to us that they are human after all. Secretly, we let out a sigh of relief when those we put on a pedestal show us they are human. We like to know that our leaders mess up just like we do sometimes. The truth is, there is only one man who deserves to be put on a pedestal. Jesus Christ, the Son of God. He was not simply God, as amazing as that is; He was God in the flesh.

I. The discussion of _____ vs. _____.

- A. Debate still takes place as to whether or not Jesus is fully _____ and fully _____.
- B. The Church settled on the truth as described in the Scriptures – that Jesus had two _____, divinity and humanity.

II. The human _____ of Jesus.

- A. Four different _____ show us the pain that Jesus felt while praying in the Garden.
 - 1. _____ about the _____. (vv. 39-43)
 - 2. _____ from a lack of _____ from his followers. (vv. 45-46)
 - 3. _____ from a _____. (vv. 47-48)
 - 4. _____ to God's _____. (vv. 49-53)

III. Four _____ for today.

- A. Jesus knows how you _____. (Heb. 4:14-16)
- B. Jesus loved you enough to lay down his _____ for you. (Jn. 10:17-18)
- C. Jesus suffered for you to _____ you from sin. (Heb. 2:14-18)
- D. Jesus wants to transform your _____ into _____.