How to figure out what your gift or gifts are...

- 1. What are you good at today - your "Ability"
- 2. What are you passionate about - your "Affinity" (what you care about)
- 3. What other people affirm about you that God uses you for in their lives - "Affirmation"

Why is it so crucial to know what mine is?

- a. There are certain ways you can reveal Christ to others and certain things that God wants to do in the world through you - God has wired you specifically to serve Him in a certain way...
- b. If you don't use your gifts, you will never really experience fulfillment in your life spiritually...

Ephesians 4:11-12

Ministry is supposed to happen through so-called ordinary people who are equipped to minister in the church and their community

"Paul's vision of the church is not a group of people gathered around a charismatic leader...

Paul's vision of the church is that it's a factory that is growing up leaders who are operating in the power of the spirit in whatever sphere of life God has placed them in..." - J.D. Greear
