

Deep Roots: Embrace Mission

September 23, 2021

This morning we explore the deep roots of “embracing Mission.” In this, we focus on the commission of the 70 disciples in Luke 10 while also exploring several stories in Acts that “live into” this commission. Here are a few notes for you to follow along this morning:

If you could describe how you understood mission from your church experience, what would you say?

Mission doesn’t start with asking questions about what the church does, mission starts with what?

The first principle for embracing mission is: when you embrace mission you embrace...?

The church does not need a ttt but the mission needs a _____. Do you agree or disagree?

The second principle for embracing mission is: when you embrace mission you embrace...?

Name some reasons why you would rather experience mission than simply talk about mission.

The last principle for embracing mission is: when you embrace mission you embrace...?

Why do you think our posture matters when we embrace mission?

Finally, mission is about a focus on the kingdom of God. What do YOU think this means?
