

A prayer for the believers at Cullman FBC:

May God, who has called you out of darkness into His marvelous light, grant that you never forget that:

You are called to be a disciple, an apprentice to Jesus.

You all are, collectively, God's royal priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices and proclaiming God, with direct access to God himself.

You are not home yet. You are called to be an alien, a stranger and exile, and your highest allegiance will always be to Christ, not Caesar.

You are gifted, uniquely gifted by God through the gifts of the Holy Spirit to serve and build up the body.

You are an indispensable member of the body of Christ and need never feel superior or inferior to any other part.

You are His witnesses, to tell the truth about what you have seen and heard; to proclaim His excellencies.

And that, in light of all this, you are a minister.

May you therefore be commissioned (or re-commissioned) to ministry in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
