P.R.A.Y. SERMON SERIES

This November, we invite you to join us for the powerful conclusion of our P.R.A.Y. Sermon Series with messages focused on the next steps in a biblical life of prayer:

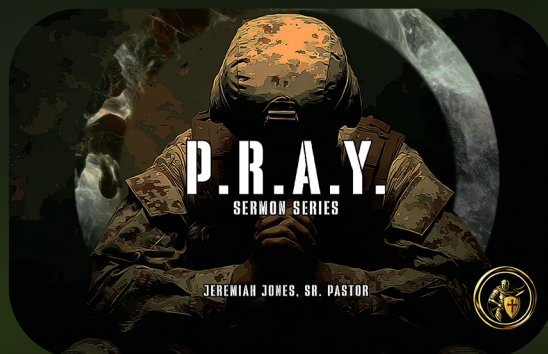

November 8, 2025

Ask — learning to make petitions aligned with God's will

November 22, 2025

Yield — learning to surrender fully to the Spirit's leading

Don't miss this chance to go deeper in your relationship with the Lord. As we continue to Praise, Repent, Ask, and Yield, we believe hearts will be transformed, and lives will be changed.

OCTOBER RECAP

P is for PRAISE

Sermon Date: October 11, 2025

Scripture Focus: Psalm 33, 145-150 (AMP)

In the first message of our P.R.A.Y. Series, Senior Pastor Jeremiah Jones led us into a powerful reminder that praise is more than a song — it is our posture before a holy God. Through the psalms of David, we were called to praise the Lord for who He is — Creator, Sustainer, Deliverer, Restorer, and King.

From the heavens to the earth, from every nation to every soul, the Word compels us: "Let everything that has breath and every breath of life praise the Lord!" (Psalm 150:6 AMP)

When praise goes up, perspective shifts, faith rises, and God's presence is made known. We don't praise Him for what we feel — we praise Him for who He is.

R is for REPENT

Sermon Date: October 25, 2025

Scripture Focus: Revelation 1-3, 16 (AMP)

In the second installment of our P.R.A.Y. Series, Pastor Jeremiah Jones brought a sobering and soul-stirring Word on the call to repentance. Drawing from the letters to the churches in Revelation, we were reminded that Jesus not only sees our works — He searches our hearts.

This message was a call to return: return to our first love and authority, reject compromise, and embrace holiness in a world that celebrates darkness. The Spirit is still speaking to the church today — "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says..." (Revelation 2:7 AMP).

Repentance is not shame — it's the pathway to restoration and revival. And it starts with a heart that says, "Search me, Lord."

COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

PASTOR JAIDEN | ORDINATION

We joyfully celebrate the ordination of Jaiden Perry as an Associate Pastor and Prophet of Divine Trinity Church. This is a sacred milestone for both Jaiden and our ministry. He has walked faithfully, served diligently, and now steps boldly into his next assignment in the Kingdom. Please keep Pastor Jaiden in your prayers as he embraces this new mantle of leadership and continues to speak truth and life to the Body of Christ.
