

ACTS 18

Ps. Cory Sondral

Sermon Notes

Be led by the Spirit, not your own strength – Like Paul on his missionary journey, we should allow the Holy Spirit to guide us, responding to God's direction rather than relying on our own efforts.

Catch the wind of God's Spirit – Instead of chasing after things that exhaust us, we need to position ourselves to catch the wind of the Holy Spirit, aligning with His timing and purpose.

The Word of God grounds us – Just as a sailboat needs wind to move, we need God's Word to stabilize and direct us in life, ensuring we're not drifting aimlessly.

Life Group Discussion Questions

What does it mean for you to be "led by the Spirit" in your personal life? Are there areas where you find yourself chasing the wind rather than catching it?

The rudder was described as representing free will. How do you see your choices aligning with God's direction for your life?

In Acts 18:9, Paul is encouraged to keep speaking and not be afraid because God is with him. How does this message speak to your life today?
