

Miphkad and Ephraim Gate

Restoring the Ruins

1. Miphkad is the place where _____ could be assembled and counted before _____.
2. Miphkad gate represented _____ before warfare.
3. Self- examination is _____ for spiritual growth.
4. Accountability belongs to _____.
5. God examines us not to destroy us but to _____.
6. Without inspection, _____ goes unnoticed.
7. Healthy Spiritual lives require honest _____.
8. Inspection is not _____ it is _____.
9. Did the Ephraim gate need to be repaired? _____.
10. Which side was the Ephraim gate located on? _____
11. What does Ephraim mean? _____
12. Even in hardship, God _____ the potential for future fruit.
13. God preserves what is necessary for _____.
14. Fruitfulness and _____ are connected.
15. God desires _____.