

WHEN THE BREAKER GOES BEFORE YOU

You Can't Stay Here

Class Worksheet • Micah 2:10-13

Name: _____ Date: _____

PART 1 - FILL IN THE BLANKS

Complete each statement from today's lesson.

1. Micah 2:10 says, "Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your _____."
2. Before God talks about breakthrough, He first talks about _____.
3. Sometimes the most dangerous spiritual place is not a painful place, but a _____ place.
4. Some places are resting places; some places are _____ places.
5. Surrender must come before _____.
6. Romans 8:14 says, "For as many as are _____ by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God."
7. Micah 2:12 says, "I will surely _____ the remnant of Israel."
8. God's correction is not God's _____.
9. In John 10, the Shepherd goes _____ the sheep, and the sheep follow Him.
10. Faith does not always know where it is going; faith knows _____ it is following.
11. The Hebrew root behind "the Breaker" carries the idea of making an _____ or breach.
12. Instead of only praying, "God, give me breakthrough," we can pray, "God, go _____ me."
13. Sometimes the greatest wall is not around me; sometimes the wall is _____ me.
14. When God opens the gate, we still have to walk _____ it.
15. We do not merely need a breakthrough; we need the _____.

WHEN THE BREAKER GOES BEFORE YOU

You Can't Stay Here

PART 2 - MULTIPLE CHOICE

Circle the best answer.

1. What was happening in Micah 2 before the promise of restoration?

- A. Israel was enjoying complete peace
- B. People were abusing power and oppressing others
- C. The temple was being rebuilt
- D. David had just become king

2. What is the lesson behind "This is not your rest"?

- A. Christians should never rest
- B. God may call us to move from a place where we have become wrongly settled
- C. Sleep is unspiritual
- D. Israel needed a vacation

3. What is a danger of only wanting voices that comfort us?

- A. We may reject God's correction
- B. We will study too much
- C. We will become too confident
- D. We will never experience difficulty

4. What does being "led" by God require?

- A. God following our plans
- B. Knowing every detail first
- C. Allowing Someone else to be in front
- D. Never making decisions

5. In Micah 2:12, who initiates the gathering?

- A. The people
- B. The prophets
- C. The surrounding nations
- D. God

6. According to John 10, what does the Good Shepherd do?

- A. Goes before His sheep
- B. Leaves the sheep to find their own road
- C. Drives them from a distance
- D. Promises they will never see a valley

7. What does the image of "the Breaker" emphasize?

- A. Human strength
- B. Someone going before the people and making an opening
- C. Avoiding all obstacles
- D. Israel breaking its own walls

8. What does the Red Sea illustrate in this lesson?

- A. Every obstacle means we missed God
- B. God always shows the road beforehand
- C. God can lead us to a closed place and then make the way
- D. Israel should have returned to Egypt

9. Which may be an internal wall God wants to break?

- A. Pride, fear, or control
- B. Only a literal city gate
- C. Only a physical mountain
- D. Nothing inside us ever needs changing

10. What is the climax of Micah 2:13 in this lesson?

- A. The people become independent
- B. The gate becomes the focus
- C. The King goes before His people
- D. There will never be another obstacle

WHEN THE BREAKER GOES BEFORE YOU

You Can't Stay Here

PART 3 - PUTTING IT TOGETHER

Match each movement in Micah 2:10-13 with its lesson truth.

Scripture Movement	Lesson Truth
1. ARISE	A. God restores and brings His people together
2. I WILL GATHER	B. Faith responds when God makes the way
3. THE BREAKER GOES BEFORE	C. There are things God calls us to leave
4. THEY PASS THROUGH THE GATE	D. God makes a way we cannot make ourselves
5. THE KING GOES BEFORE THEM	E. After breakthrough, keep following the King

PART 4 - PERSONAL REFLECTION

1. Is there an area where you may be resting when God is asking you to move?

2. Is there something you are trying to force open instead of trusting God to go before you?

3. What internal barrier - fear, pride, control, bitterness, comfort, or something else - can make following God difficult?

4. Finish this sentence: "If I know the King is going before me, I can..."

KEY TRUTH

The breakthrough is not the destination. The Breaker is the One we follow. He goes before us, makes the way, and remains our King after we pass through the gate.

Remember: "The Breaker is come up before them..." - Micah 2:13