

Restoring the Gates

Week 3 Series: Restoring the Ruins

1. In Nehemiah, the _____ represent protection, but the _____ represent access.
2. Gates determine what is allowed to _____ and what is allowed to _____.
3. God is restoring _____ over what flows through us.
4. Gates are named by their _____, not their _____.
5. A rebuilt life without guarded _____ becomes vulnerable.
6. The Sheep Gate was used for _____.
7. It was built by the _____.
8. It represents _____.
9. Everything begins at the _____.
10. The Fish Gate was a place of _____.
11. We are not just saved, but _____.
12. Evangelism is for _____ believers.
13. The Old Gate represents _____.
14. Strong lives are built on _____.
15. The Valley Gate represents _____ seasons.
16. God shapes us in _____ places.
17. Zanoah means _____.
18. The Dung Gate removed _____.
19. We must _____ what contaminates us.
20. Malchijah means 'My _____ is Yahweh.'
21. The Fountain Gate led to _____ water.
22. It represents the _____ of the Spirit.
23. The Water Gate is where the _____ was read.
24. The Word _____ us.
25. The Nethinim were _____ servants.
26. The Horse Gate represents _____.
27. They built in front of their own _____.
28. The East Gate represents _____.
29. Shemaiah means 'The Lord _____.'
30. The Miphkad Gate represents _____.

Declaration: Lord, rebuild every broken place in my life. Restore my gates so I can guard what enters and exits. Give me wisdom to remove what doesn't belong, strength to protect what You've given me, and grace to walk in purpose and fruitfulness. In Jesus' name, Amen