Paul is reluctant to follow the voice of the Lord, he has such a compassion for the Jews, he wants them to know the Truth.

Only he who overcomes his hesitation in full trust in the perfect right and wisdom of that command will be able to say, "He has done all things well.

We don't always get everything right! We would stay when God says to go or to go when God says to stay. He wasn't staying for wrong reasons. Sometimes God says just get out of this situation. Why? Maybe there is a lesson to be learned, maybe the time is not right, maybe there it is more dangerous for you to stay than to go. Obedience is greater than sacrifice. Living a life in full surrender to Jesus Christ is the most fulfilling life. We may not always understand, but we must always be obedient to His voice and to His call!
