

Easy to Break, Hard to Build
Discussion Notes
John 17
March 29, 2020

Weekend summary - Jesus is praying for us. He is praying that we enter into the love of the Father and the Son. Our unity will result. The unity is easy to break, hard to build.

Intro question: Who in your family were you closest with? And why?

The longest prayer of Jesus recorded in scripture is John 17. Let's read it in 3 sections.

Read John 17.1-5

What is Jesus' main request in this section?

Read John 17.6-19

What is Jesus' main request in this section?

Read John 17.20-26

What is Jesus' main request in this section?

Is Jesus' main request that his disciples simply be in unity? Or is it actually something a bit more?

Read verse 24 again.

How would Jesus describe his relationship with the Father?

What is Jesus praying for his disciples?

How would your life be different if you truly experienced what Jesus is praying for you?

Prayer Suggestion:

Pray for each other that you would receive the love of the Father.