

Prayer of Confession

God of all Creation, we praise you! You alone are God. We confess how easy it is to get caught up in the unrest and busyness of the world around us. Forgive us Lord, when we place our security and trust in things we think we can control. Forgive us when our restlessness assaults our trust in you, or hurts those around us. Help us rest in your grace as we silently confess our sins to you.

(silent prayer)

Amen.

Scripture

Genesis 1:31-2:3

31 God saw all that he had made, and it was very good. And there was evening, and there was morning—the sixth day.

2 Thus the heavens and the earth were completed in all their vast array.

2 By the seventh day God had finished the work he had been doing; so on the seventh day he rested from all his work. 3 Then God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it he rested from all the work of creating that he had done.

Hebrews 4:6-11

6 Therefore since it still remains for some to enter that rest, and since those who formerly had the good news proclaimed to them did not go in because of their disobedience, 7 God again set a certain day, calling it “Today.” This he did when a long time later he spoke through David, as in the passage already quoted:

“Today, if you hear his voice,
do not harden your hearts.”

8 For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken later about another day. 9 There remains, then, a Sabbath-rest for the people of God; 10 for anyone who enters God’s rest also rests from their works, just as God did from his. 11 Let us, therefore, make every effort to enter that rest, so that no one will perish by following their example of disobedience.
